Lunar Panthers are pack hunters on the Red Moon. One will give chase into the waiting claws of others, who will pounce, clawing and stabbing with their fangs. The bite will always target the head if the hit grants a combat maneuver. If the tiger hits with both claws in the same round it establishes a Grip and gains a +20% bonus to hit with its Bite attack. To this Scarlet adds her tongue attack against foes smaller than herself, attacking first with her tongue, to establish a grip with a STR 16, vs STR contest. If she succeeds, she will retract her tongue as she moves in to Bite at +20% to hit. Target gripped by her tongue can break free with a STR contest, or Evade, but the gripped location is immobilized and cannot be used.

Scarlet has red fur, shaggy at the jowls and shoulders. Typical of her species, her head has no obvious ears, and her face is hairless and noticeably ridged. She is a swift and deadly predator, domesticated by the will of the Red Goddess, and her prehensile tongue aids her greatly in the hunt.
